25th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

We continuing working with the theme of Mercy this week. Our Scripture readings reflect a deep connection with Mercy and God's invitation for us to not only experience it for ourselves, and to want to share that reality with others.

In the beginning of every Mass we celebrate, we are invited to take time to consider some of those things that separate us from the love of God, the things we allow to deflect the real love of God from coming into our hearts.

Through the act of contrition, we pray as a community for the forgiveness of God and the ability to be able to forgive others and seek forgiveness from those we may have hurt through our sins.

God's Divine Mercy is that free, yet undeserving gift that we might also share with those we encounter each and every day. Fr. Gerald

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

This Sunday at the 11am Mass at Saint Andrew we will welcome Baby Kingsley Grace Bernadette, daughter of Anna Sullivan and Scott Rhodenizer.

As we welcome Kingsley to the Christian Family, we ask the Lord to bless and protect and guide in the faith of the family. Thank you for choosing the gift of Faith for Kingsley.

As your community of Faith, Saint Andrew and the Divine Mercy Parish, will pray for Kingsley and for you all, as you journey in the faith. Congratulations and God's choicest blessings.

A BIG THANK YOU

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Don & Linda Baker for their generous sharing of goods of their garden, and the pig raised for the Pig Roast held last Saturday at Saint John XXIII. It was a wonderful meal.

At this I thank John Hanlin and the Brother Knights who prepared this wonderful feast. It was a great opportunity be able to share a meal, socialize with those around us and give thanks to God for our Community of Faith.

The proceeds were designated to assist the Youth of our Parish – also a thank you goes out to the Youth who assisted with hospitality and serving. Great Job by all – Many Thanks!!!

The topics will include: vocations, worship, Ministry of Care & Companionship, leadership, and co-responsibility. While some of our presenters include: Fr. Craig Cameron, Mr. Ron Huntley, and Sr. Nuala Kenny.

Last week Prime Minister Trudeau announced the election for October 21, 2019. Canadian Catholics are being asked to
